

Narrative Essay #2

Write a narrative essay about a time you and your family celebrated something. This doesn't have to be a celebration for you, but it could be. This essay should be five paragraphs long. Remember, events included should be sequenced, use good transition words/phrases, descriptive details, and superior conventions (punctuation, capitalization, spelling, and organization)

Please use the space below and the back of this page, to brainstorm you ideas, and to map out your essay. Remember that this essay will need to typed and either printed out or shared to mrjenningshomework@gmail.com. If you choose to share the essay, make sure you name it Narrative Essay #2.